A WONDERFUL LITTLE CHURCH, DATING BACK to the old Shiloh Baptist Church (white) of Frederricksburg, Va., over one hundred years ago. Since that time until about ten years ago these people were a part of the Shiloh Baptist Church of this city. Since 1891 they have been favorably known as the Walker Memorial Baptist Church, in memory of the late much beloved Rev. W. J. Walker, who served them as pastor for over twenty-five years without a break, until after his death the break came, when most of the officers and older members, after having accumulated a church property valued at $50,000, with an indebtedness of only $8,173.35, went out under the canopy of the heavens without purse, script or two coats, organized and were recognized as the Walker Memorial Baptist Church. Since that, amidst the ups and downs and disappointments in life, they have grown slowly but surely from 95 to 198. With a part of this small number they have purchased their present property on Madison ave. between 14th and 15th sts n.w., at a cost and improvements about $9,000. upon which they only owe $2,850. In the last fifteen months they have raised and paid on Pastor's salary.

MAIL CONTRACT AWARDED RAN-DALL STEAMBOAT LINE.

But Small Demand for Fish and Oysters-The Freight Handlers-General Matters.

The Randall Potomac River Line Company has been awarded the contract for carrying the mails on route 13,100, between this city and Glymont, for four years from the 1st of July, 1901. This is regarded as the most important mail route on the Potomac river, and there were several bidders for the work. The Randail line has been the contractor since 1697, and the steamer Estelle Randall was built for the route. The contract calls for the delivery of mail pouches to and from the post office at New Glatz, Fort Washington, Marshall Hall, Gunston and Glymont and Indian

The supply of fish at the 11th street wharf this morning was quite small, the Norfolk and Washington line steamer hav-ing brought up but eight packages from the shores about Norfolk and Old Point for the local dealers since Saturday, and but four packages having come up on the river boats. The market continues quite dull, boats. The market continues quite dull, and prices are about the same as last week, black bass selling at 10 to 12c. per pound; white perch at 8 to 10c. per pound; green pike, 8c. per pound; carp 4 to 5c. per pound; trout, 9 to 10c. per pound; blue pike, 4c. per pound; haddock, 4c. per pound; smelt, 4 to 7c. per pound; sheepshead, 8c. per pound; yellow perch, 15 to 40c. per bunch; sand perch, 25 to 40c. per bunch; river mullets, 10 to 15c. per bunch, and catish. 15 to 20c. per bunch.

river mullets, 10 to 15c. per bunch, and catfish, 15 to 20c. per bunch.

The demand for oysters at the wharf continues light, and while but few vessels are now coming into port the supply on hand is ample to meet all demands for some time to come. There are at the wharf this morning about twenty-five vessels, having in all about 5,000 bushels of oysters on board. In consequence of the light demand and the warmer weather prices have again fallen, and today the smaller grades of oysters could be bought for from 45 to 60 cents per bushel, and the larger ones sold at 70 to 80 cents per bushel. The recent arrivals at the wharf are the S. L.
Culver, from the eastern shore, and the Culver, from the eastern shore, and the Ada Covington, Mary Virginia and the Lizzie Lane from the river beds.

As the steamer Harry Randall, Captain James Barker, was off the mouth of Mattawoman creek on her way to this city Friday evening she sighted a vessel flying the national flag union down, a signal of distress. Going up to the vessel it was ascar-tained that it was the bugeye Ella Covinge 12 ton, bound to this city with a cargo of e 13 oysters. The boat had been cut through e 12 by the ice, and was rapidly filling with e 12 water. She was in no immediate danger of sinking, her commander said, and he re-quested Captain Barker to send a tug to him. The tug James O. The steamer E. James Tull, after discharging a quantity of flour at Alexandria, has come on to this port to discharge the remainder of her cargo of cordwood.

The tug Stella arrived in port Saturday evening with the American Refining Company's oil barge, No. 78, laden with oil, and a coal-laden barge in tow for this port. On her way up the river the Stella was forced to drop a coal barge in consequence of the running ice, and yesterday she brought that barge to Alexandria for Wm. A. Smoot &

The United States naval tug Tecumseh Saturday evening took a small rapid-fire gun to Indian Head to be tested. The steamer Dennis Simmons, having completed the repair work being done to her at the Alexandria ship yard, has sailed for Edenton, N. C., to load for this port.

Personal and General Matters. Mrs. Alice Kersey, wife of Chief Engineer Charley Kersey of the steamer Harry Randall, died at her home at Alexandria, Friday, after a lingering illness. She was burled yesterday. The tug Spray, belonging to Mr. James McEuen, is at the Alexandria marine railway, where her boffer will be retubed and other work done to fit her for work when the spring opens.

Steam was made on the new dredge of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company, now lying at the foot of 14th street, just west of the Long bridge, to test its beller and machinery. The dredge will be ready for service in a few days.

by Mrs. Kate Kearney Henry, and "Centennial of the First Inauguration of a President at the Permanent Seat," by Dr. Sam-Descriptive of Passion Play. Prof. E. D. F. Brady delivered a lecture last evening on the Passion Play before a large audience in Gonzaga Hall. The discourse was profusely illustrated with stereopticon views. The lecture was under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul So-ciety of St. Aloysius Church, and the proeeds will be devoted to the relief of the poor in the parish.

In Favor of the Negative. The question affirming "That hazing at West Point is justifiable" was debated at the lyceum of the Young Men's Christian Association Saturday night. C. F. Nesbit The and L. C. Mather took the affirmative, while opposed to them were L. Cabell Williamson and S. W. Drew. The question was decided in favor of the negative.

Infantry Armory, where the fair of the Knights of Columbus opens-tonight, represent a street in Barcelona, Spain, with a garden at the end of it. Koster of New York, who has been awarded the inaugural ball contract, has completed the decorations, and the ladies in charge of the stores have their goods arranged in an attractive manner. Every attraction that is usually found in a fair room will be found here, and an immense crowd is expected at the many valuable articles for the fair, and the several councils have worked hard to make the fair a success. It is expected that the proceeds will be large enough to be of assistance to the knights in the purchase

Promptly at 8 o'clock tonight the fair will be formally opened by the Right Reverend Archbishop Martinelli, and an address will be delivered by Rev. D. J. Stafford, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church. Preparations for the event have been going on for several months, and the committees in charge are well pleased with the donations and the prospects from a financial standpoint.

The members of the executive committee in charge are: Geo. W. Barry, chairman;

REMEDY WHICH HAS REVOLUTIONIZED

THE TREATMENT OF STOMACH TROUBLES.

The remedy is not heralded as a wonderful discovery nor yet a secret patent inedicine, neither is it claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles, with which nine out

The remedy is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges, containing vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin (government test), golden seal and diastase. The tablets are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia, Tablets. Many interesting experiments to test the digestive power of Stuart's Tablets show that one grain of the active principle contained in them is sufficient to thoroughly digest 3,000 grains of raw

Stuart's Tablets do not act upon the bowels like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act entirely on the food eaten, digesting it completely, so that it can be assimilated into blood, nerve and tissue. They cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the di-gestive power which weak atomachs lack, and unless that lack is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure by the use of "tonics," "pills" and ca-thartics which have absolutely no digestive power.
